CHS Market Close Report

Feb 11, 2018

Petroleum Manager: Chuck Redmon – (509) 979-3350 chuckr@aglink.biz

The petroleum complex saw small losses as it continues its march in the sideways trade pattern. Gasoline futures gave up much of what they gained last week after traders concluded that refinery issues would be offset by poor midwinter demand. Venezuela's Nicholas Maduro is reaching out to OPEC for support against U.S. sanctions imposed on his country's oil industry. In other world news, East Libyan forces say they have full control of El Sharara oilfield after taking an offensive in the south to fight off militants and to secure the oilfields.
